

ROMANIA

UKRAINE

COOPERATION AGREEMENT

With a view to establishing collaboration between our institutions, of knowing each other better, for the benefit of the professional and scientific improvement of the students and teaching staff through a free exchange of information, the University of Petrosani-Romania and Kryvyi Rih Technical University-Ukraine will further and carry out the followings, on a mutual basis:

1. Initiation and discussion of the cooperation concerning joint fundamental and applied research in the fields of interest for both parties.
2. Methodical works exchange in order to carry out curricula, research programs and normative documents drawing up.
3. Mutual carrying out and publication of the didactical-methodical literature for students and Ph.D. students, among which writing and editing manuals and handbooks.
4. Students, Ph.D. students and teaching staff exchange.
5. Exchange of students and teaching staff groups for practical training periods.
6. Mutual participations into various scientific events (conferences, symposia and seminars) and also international projects, namely in the framework of the European Union.
7. Modern methodologies drawing up and programs providing for the educational process informatization, scientific research carrying out and their protection by joint invention patents.
8. Exchange of curricula, syllabi on specializations studied in both universities and also in the field of distance learning.
9. Joint training of students, specialists and post-graduates in the fields of the universities training and research activities.
10. The program of concrete cooperation actions will be established with the agreement of both parties, until 1st December for the following year.
11. The financial terms for the cooperation activities carrying out, on the basis of the present agreement, will be ensured on a mutual basis.

RECTOR,

*Prof.dr.eng. Nicolae DIMA*Petrosani, 9th September 2005

RECTOR

Prof.dr.eng. Yuri VALKUL